

Biography

Janusz Kubicki

City Zielona Góra

Husband and father of two sons. He has been a Lubuszan from birth, he was born in Szprotawa, but lives for over forty years in Zielona Góra. He is a graduate of the Higher School of Engineering. Since 2006, he has been the president of Zielona Góra, previously he worked in the Agora publishing group, Polmos in Zielona Góra and managed the Polyclinic in Zielona Góra. It is safe to say that he has devoted his entire adult life to the development of the city. It perfectly fitted into the realities of the change of the political system in Poland thirty years ago, especially after our country was admitted to the European Union. He turned out to be a master in obtaining EU funds, which contributed directly and indirectly to the development of Zielona Góra and the improvement of the living conditions of people in the city.

The city, managed for sixteen years by Janusz Kubicki, has acquired an agglomeration character and today successfully fulfills a region-creating role. He knows and understands the problems of the city, knows what direction should be taken in order to meet the needs of the city's inhabitants on the one hand, and on the other hand, to effectively seek additional national and EU funds.
